Credit Score

In evaluating your application for a home mortgage loan, one factor your lender will consider is one or more of your credit scores because they assist the lender in evaluating your credit history in a faster, more objective manner. Your credit scores are found on your credit report. The range of possible scores is from 300 to 850. Your lender may also obtain and consider other credit scores in making its decision on your application from the credit bureaus listed below.

In addition to the credit scores, your credit report lists the key reasons why your scores were less than the maximum possible scores. Please keep in mind that these reasons are provided based on variables, where you received less than the maximum number of points possible. The listing of these reasons does not by itself indicate that you would not be approved for the loan you have requested. The lender considers many factors in addition to your credit score in making a decision on your application. If your application is not approved, you will receive a separate notice stating the specific reasons for that action which may or may not relate to your credit scores.

The originator or lender did not calculate your credit scores, nor did they develop the scoring models. If you have any questions about your credit scores or the information in the credit report from which the credit scores were computed, you can contact the credit bureaus at the addresses listed below:

Notice to Home Loan Applicant

Pursuant to the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003

In connection with your application for a home loan, the lender must disclose to you the score that a consumer reporting agency distributed to users and the lender used in connection with your home loan, and the key factors affecting your credit scores.

The credit score is a computer generated summary calculated at the time of the request and based on the information a consumer reporting agency or lender has on file. The scores are based on data about your credit history and payment patterns. Credit scores are important because they are used to assist the lender in determining whether you will obtain a loan. They may also be used to determine what interest rate you may be offered on the mortgage. Credit scores can change over time, depending on your conduct, how your credit history and payment patterns change, and how credit scoring technologies change.

Because the score is based on information in your credit history, it is very important that you review the credit-related information that is being furnished to make sure it is accurate. Credit records may vary from one company to another.

If you have questions about your credit score or the credit information that is furnished to you, contact the consumer reporting agency at the address and phone number provided with this notice, or contact the lender if the lender developed or generated the credit score. The consumer reporting agency plays no part in the decision to take any action on the loan application and is unable to provide you with specific reasons for the decisions on a loan application. If you have any question concerning the terms of the loan, contact the lender.

This acknowledges that this Disclosure with a credit score, has been provided to each applicant/customer pursuant to the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003.

TAX ESCROW INFORMATION

The Illinois legislature passed a bill, which allows mortgagors to pledge to the lender, regulated by the State of Illinois, a private savings account in lieu of a mortgagee held escrow account for tax payment purposes. Should you elect to exercise this option, your signature will be required on a separate agreement detailing your future obligation in its regard. In addition the lender may require you to perform the following:

1. Provide, at closing, a passbook from your bank, saving and loan association, or another acceptable institution, evidencing your deposit of an amount required by the lender. The passbook must clearly show that the lender is the ONLY party authorized to withdraw funds up to and including the principal amount on deposit.
2. Furnish, at closing, two blank signature cards for withdrawal. These cards will be available at the chosen institution.
3. Furnish, at closing, two preprinted withdrawal slips, should you desire to exercise this option.

According to the Illinois Law, the amount deposited is intended to cover the mortgage lender in case of nonpayment of taxes by the individual borrower. You would still be required to pay the property taxes yourself from sources other than the account pledged to the lender. The lender would have the right to withdraw only should you fail to make the payment yourself. In other words a program of savings for tax payment on your part, separate from the pledged deposit, will also have to be implemented. You would be required to maintain the full pledged amount from the date of closing, and would not have access to these funds. Also, as taxes rise or fall, the full amount on deposit may be changed accordingly. Again, the law does not intend for this savings account to be used for the actual payment of taxes, but merely as evidence of your pledge to pay taxes when due.

Please indicate below whether you wish to exercise this option or make use of the lender's standard tax escrow service.

The undersigned, having read the foregoing statutory provisions on page 2 hereby elects to:

- Make monthly Tax Escrow payments to the lender.
- Maintain a separate account as my pledge to meet future tax obligations.
- Request escrow requirements be waived. A fee may be charged.

The accumulation of funds for payment of property taxes and insurance has typically been accomplished by establishing an escrow account. Accordingly, funds are accumulated as part of your regular payment. As an option to this escrow account you may pledge an interest bearing savings account. The terms and conditions of this option and other notices are provided below.

Mortgage Escrow Account Act

- Sec. 2. As used in this act, unless the context requires otherwise:
- (a) "Escrow Account" means any account established by the mortgage lender in conjunction with a mortgage loan on a residence, into which the borrower is required to make regular periodic payments and out of which the lender pays the taxes on the property covered by the mortgage.
 - (b) "Borrower" means the person obligated under the mortgage loan.
 - (c) "Mortgage Lender" means any bank, savings and loan association, building and loan association or institution, association, partnership, corporation or person who extends the loan of monies for the purpose of enabling another to purchase a residence.
 - (d) "Escrow-like arrangement" means any arrangement the intent of which is to serve the same purpose as an escrow account but which does not require the formal establishment of an account.
- Sec. 3. Escrow accounts or Escrow-like arrangements established after the effective date of this act in conjunction with mortgage agreements for single-family owner occupied residential property are hereby declared separate and distinct transactions from mortgages and, hence, subject to the laws and regulations of this State.
- Sec. 4. On or after the effective date of this Act, each mortgage lender in conjunction with the granting of a mortgage on a single-family owner occupied residential property, shall comply with the provisions of this State.
- Sec. 5. When the mortgage is reduced to 65% of its original amount by payments of the borrower, timely made according to the provisions of the loan agreement secured by the mortgage, and the borrower is otherwise not in default on the loan agreement, the mortgage lender must notify the borrower that he may terminate such escrow account or that he may elect to continue it until he requests a termination thereof, or until the mortgage is paid in full, whichever occurs first.
- Sec. 6. In lieu of the mortgage lender establishing an escrow account or an escrow-like arrangement, a borrower may pledge an interest bearing savings account with the mortgage lender in an amount sufficient to secure the payment of anticipated taxes.
- Sec. 7. The borrower shall not have the right to terminate any such arrangement under Section 5 in conjunction with mortgages insured, guaranteed, supplemented, or assisted by the State of Illinois or the Federal government that require an escrow arrangement for their continuation.
- Sec. 8. If after terminating an escrow arrangement under the conditions of this Act, the borrower does not furnish to the lender sufficient evidence of payment of the taxes when due on the residence covered by the mortgage with respect to which the escrow arrangement was established, the lender may, within thirty days after such payment is due, establish or re-establish an escrow arrangement notwithstanding the provisions of this Act.
- Sec. 9. Failure of any mortgage lender operating within this State to comply with the provisions of this Act shall entitle the borrower to actual damages in a court action.
- Sec. 10. The provisions of this act shall not be applicable to a mortgage lender using the capitalization method of accounting for receipt of payments for taxes. The capitalization method shall mean crediting such tax payments directly on the loan principal upon receipt and increasing the loan balance when the taxes are paid.
- Sec. 11. Notice of the requirements of the act shall be furnished in writing to the borrower at the date of closing.
- Sec. 12. This Act takes effect as of January 1, 1976.

MORTGAGE BROKERAGE FEE DISCLOSURE

You have applied to a mortgage broker for a residential mortgage loan. The mortgage broker will submit your application for a residential mortgage loan to a participating lender with which it from time to time contracts upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This form supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from the mortgage broker concerning your application.

SECTION 1. NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan:

- The mortgage broker may be acting as an independent contractor and not your agent. If you are unsure of the nature of your relationship, please ask the mortgage broker for clarification.
- The mortgage broker has separate independent contractor agreements with the various lenders.
- While the mortgage broker seeks to assist you in meeting your financial needs, it does not distribute the products of lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2. THE BROKER'S COMPENSATION. The lenders whose loan products are distributed by the mortgage broker generally provide their loan products to the mortgage broker at a wholesale rate.

- The retail price a mortgage broker offers you – your interest rate, total points and fees – will include the broker's compensation.
- In some cases, the mortgage broker may be paid all of its compensation by either you or the lender.
- Alternatively, the mortgage broker may be paid a portion of its compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher up-front points and fees.
- Also, in some cases, if you would rather pay less up-front, you may wish to have some or all of our fees paid directly by the lender, which will result in a higher interest rate and higher monthly loan payments than you would otherwise be required to pay.
- The mortgage broker may also be paid by the lender based on (i) the value of the Mortgage Loan or related servicing rights in the market place or (ii) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by the mortgage broker to the lender.
- If you pay off your Mortgage Loan within 120 days of the date of disbursement, the mortgage broker may request you to reimburse it for all fees paid on your behalf by the mortgage broker, all compensation originally paid to the mortgage broker by the lender, as well as any buydown funds. You agree to immediately reimburse mortgage broker in full for any such request.

You may work with the mortgage broker to select the method in which it receives its compensation depending on your financial needs, subject to the lender's loan program requirements and credit underwriting guidelines.

The amount of fees and charges that you may pay in connection with your loan will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate. The final amounts will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-1A Settlement Statement.

By signing below, applicant(s) acknowledge that you have read and understand this document. By your signature, you also acknowledge that you have received a copy of this document.
